Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

October 1, 2012

Hello everybody!!! While it has been quite an exciting week for the Lady Jackets, there is something I want to share that happened last Saturday. As you all know we give out letters and Bibles to our opponents after each match we play. Sometimes it is frustrating because we don't always see the fruit of our labor, however, when we do get emails or texts back from a player we wrote it always reminds us why we do what we do - to reach that one person who needs Jesus.

Well on Saturday Lo received a text back from a player at Glenville State asking our whole team to pray for a fellow teammate of hers who had gotten in a bad car accident. Lo immediately forwarded the message to our entire team and we had the opportunity to pray for this girl. I can't even describe how awesome it was to have a complete stranger seek out our team for prayer. If there is anything from that whole weekend that I will take with me in the future, it will be that moment when we were able to be used by the Lord to lift up a fellow opponent. The last we heard the player was ok! Praise the Lord!

After our 2-2 run last weekend, coach gave us a little reminder about not being lazy - on or off the court. Usually we receive a "reminder" in the form of a text that goes something like, "don't wear volleyball gear to practice, just running shorts and tennis shoes..." In those moments each of our hearts tends to sink just a little. This time, however, he gave us a warning about cleaning up our messes and giving 100% all the time. We practiced all week with that focus, and had some very competitive practices.

Last Tuesday's home match against Ursuline went very well! We played a very solid first set, let up a little in the second set, and finished strong to take the match in three. It was another good win for the Lady Jackets!

Saturday we were headed for Notre Dame College in South Euclid, Ohio. We knew we were going to play well that day because we got to eat Panera on the way - life is just a little better with Panera. We arrived at the college and played our first set very strong against Ohio Valley University. We struggled in the second set yet again, and came back to win the third for our 16th win of the season. There was some other monumental occasion that happened...what was it...OH YEAH! Steph got her 1000th kill!!!!!! She is an awesome player, leader, and friend to everyone on the team, and we just love her!

We finished the day by playing Notre Dame and winning in four. The first set was a bit of a struggle, but once we got into a rhythm, it was three straights and we were headed home on the bus eating cookies from Lo's dad and blondies from Lori's parents. Oh and Chick-fil-A! We were supposed to watch Enchanted on the way home but coach pulled one over on us and put Batman in instead...

Good times were had by all this week, and we look forward to a home game on Tuesday at 7 p.m., and two more home games this Saturday for homecoming!

Hannah Wagner is a sophomore undeclared major from Claremont, Calif. She is in her second season with the Lady Jackets as an outside hitter.

Today's Matches

The Cedarville University women's volleyball team hosts the Trevecca Nazarene University Trojans in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference contest and the Shawnee State University Bears in a non-conference affair today in the Callan Athletic Center as part of the Annual Homecoming Weekend at CU.

The Lady Jackets, under the leadership of fifth-year Head Coach Doug Walters, enter today's action with an 18-3 record and a #8 ranking in this week's National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) Division I Poll.

Cedarville has won four matches in a row including an impressive 25-16, 25-21, 25-20 victory over visiting Ohio Dominican on Tuesday night.

Trevecca Nazarene, located in Nashville, TN, entered last night's match with Central State carrying a 12-8 record.

Shawnee State, an NAIA member of the Mid-South Conference, is 16-5 this fall including a sweep of a home tri-match on Tuesday versus Bluefield and Mount Vernon Nazarene.

Ursuline is a DII member of the G-MAC and has already matched up with CU on Sept. 25. The two teams will not meet today but are set to play again on Oct. 23 in Pepper Pike, OH.

Outside hitter Hannah Wagner, a 6-2 sophomore, paces the Cedarville attack with 210 kills and 62 blocks. Teammate Stephanie Rogers, a junior 5-11 middle hitter, joined the Lady Jacket 1,000 career kill club last Saturday.

Before last night's match with CSU, Trevecca Nazarene's Kristen Johnson topped the Trojan offensive statistics with 210 kills while dishing out 307 assists. The leading blocker for TNU is 6-0 junior middle hitter Persephonie Devereaux.

Shawnee State features five players with over 100 kills each. Alex Pohl a 5-11 senior has registered a team-best 145 kills while leading the Bears with 76 blocks.

Alex Leister, a 5-6 junior, is Ursuline's main threat with 237 kills and a second-best 300 digs.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 82 victories during Walters' four-year tenure. CU finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA Division II provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

Cedarville was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. CU was 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is the Elevation Volleyball Club 17's National Team Coach based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Hamersville, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 10.

The Walters File:

- 2008 NCCAA National Champions
- 2008 NCCAA National Coach of the Year
- 1 NAIA National Player of the Week
- 6 NCCAA All-Americans
- 1 NCCAA National Tournament MVP
- 2 NCCAA National All-Tournament players
- 7 NAIA Scholar-Athletes
- 10 NCCAA Scholar-Athletes
- 1 Conference Libero of the Year
- 1 Conference Freshman of the Year
- 8 Conference players
- 10 All-NCCAA Midwest Region players

Great Midwest Athletic Conference - Volleyball

www.G-MACsports.com

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC), which was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference effective September 1, 2012, will be working through an educational assessment program with the goal of beginning competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference by 2013-14.

The G-MAC features active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC include Cedarville University, Central State University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, Urbana University and Ursuline College. The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson-Broadus College, Davis & Elkins College, and Ohio Valley University as active DII members in 2012.

The University of Virginia's College at Wise was approved as a Full Member, while Georgetown College was added as a Provisional Member in 2012 as well.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 12 championships in 2012-13 as a NCAA Division II member conference.

Volleyball Player of the Week (Sept. 23-29)

Kelsey Volkmer

Urbana • Sophomore • Galion, OH

Kelsey Volkmer combined for 53 kills and 28 digs in a tri-match sweep of conference opponents Trevecca Nazarene University and Ursuline College on Saturday.

Her 37 kills in a 5-set win over TNU were a school record, smashing her previous record by 12 kills, hitting .479 on a school record 71 attempts.

Volkmer also contributed a team-high 13 kills in a straight sets victory over Kentucky State earlier in the week, and eight kills in a loss to UNOH giving her 74 kills on the week.

Behind Volkmer, who also totaled 42 digs this week, the Blue Knights are currently on a three-match winning streak after opening the season 1-13.
